

MARTIN ATKIN, Senior Portfolio Manager & National Managing Director

Mr. Atkin joined the firm in 2005 as a Senior Portfolio Manager. Previously, Mr. Atkin was involved with the corporate finance areas of J.P. Morgan for 23 years as a managing director and senior investment banker responsible for the diversified industries group; he was also a member of the investment banking management committee. In addition, he ran a group that was globally responsible for the recruiting, training, and development of all associates and analysts in the investment bank. Arriving in the United States in 1987, Mr. Atkin managed the leveraged loan syndications group. His first years at J.P. Morgan were spent in London working in a variety of capital markets—foreign exchange, Eurobonds, and U.K. government bonds. Mr. Atkin earned a BA in economics from Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1979 and was awarded an MA in economics by Cambridge University in 1982.
